Medium of examination for DSPs/Asstt. Commandants

*237. SHRI T.T.V. DHINAKARAN: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the selection of DSPs/Assistant Commandant etc. for the para-military forces is being done by the Union Public Service Commission during the last few years;

(b) if so, whether it is also a fact that the written tests are held only in Hindi and English; and

(c) whether Government would allow all the languages listed in the Eighth Schedule to the Constitution as a medium for these examinations as in the case of the Civil Services Examination?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) Yes, Sir. The examination for the post of Assistant Commandant in various para-military forces was held by Union Public Service Commission for the first time on 12th october, 2003. The second and latest such examination was held by the Commission on 3rd October, 2004.

(b) UPSC conducts the written examination for the post of Assistant Commandant in Central Police Forces according to the rules notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs for the said Examination.

The written examination for the post of Assistant Commandant comprises two papers i.e. Paper I and Paper II. The questions in Paper I are of objective type in which the questions are printed both in English and Hindi. in paper II the candidates are allowed the option of writing the Essay Component in Hindi or English but the medium of Precis writing and Comprehension Components of this paper is English only.

(c) At present candidates appearing only in the Civil Services (Main) Examination are allowed the option of writing their answers in English or any of the Eighth Schedule languages (except in the compulsory language papers). In the matter of extension of this facility to other examinations conducted by UPSC, given the importance and the sensitivity of the matter and, divergent views on the subject, Government's endeavour is and, has been , to evolve a consensus, before formulating a nationally acceptable policy, after holding wider consultation with State Governments and others concerned. Efforts in that direction are continuing.
